MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

FROM: Deane E. Hoffmann
National Intelligence Officer for Economics

SUBJECT: Latin American Debt

1. I will host a Community meeting to discuss developments in Latin American debt in light of the recent IMF meetings, Argentina's impasse with creditors, and signals that Mexican President-elect Salinas will take a tougher stance with creditors. The meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, 12 October at 1000 in Room 7E62, CIA Headquarters.

2. Please come prepared to offer your views on the current situation in Latin American debt and on the domestic political scene in major debtor countries. In order to refine a preliminary draft CP/TOR on Latin debt, we will also discuss the role of structural adjustment in alleviating debt problems in Latin America.

3. Please have your clearances passed and call [redacted] in the Office of the NIO/Economics [redacted] with your attendance plans by COB Tuesday, 11 October.
